

Start here when you don't know which card to pull. Read from the top and take the first row that matches. Several at once? Safety comes first.

I'm afraid, being threatened, or not free to say no

- 1 Includes a partner who checks, restricts or accuses. Numbers are not on this map: keep them somewhere private.

 Stop. These tools are not for this. Get outside help (Help Lines: last page). Immediate danger: your local emergency number.

I'm flooded or shut down (but safe)

Racing heart, urge to flee or win

 Pause + Return — Say a time you will be back, and come back at it. For flooding, never for fear.

A fight is starting

Voices rising; you're both building a case

 60-Second Reset — Say one sentence: "I want to connect, not fight. Can we talk at ___?" Too hot to stay in the room?

 Pause + Return. Then row 4.

A hard talk to get right

 System Overlay — One order, ending with who does what.

 Green Rule first: the honest thing must be safe to say.

Outside pressure or disapproval from family, friends or strangers

 Team Agreement — Decide together how the two of you answer; never limit a partner's contact with anyone. Coming from your partner? Checking or restricting: row 1. Otherwise

 Green Rule.

Trust breach

A lie, infidelity, a broken agreement

 Trust Recovery — Safety first. Agree one change you will both see, and when to check it.

Drifting apart, or pulling away

 Check-Up — A 20-minute count of what you have each noticed. Contempt, fear or coercion: stop and get outside support first.

After a fight, or something small stung

 Micro-Repair — Start within minutes; finish within 24 hours.

Bigger hurt:  Full Repair. Something must change: a Proof item in  Trust Recovery.

We keep clashing the same way

 Check-Up — Name it out loud: "I think we're doing the thing again." Later, calm: the Check-Up, then  Profile Calibration to see how you each need care.

Asking for closeness, saying no, or intimacy feels stuck

 Intimacy Pact — Pressure after a no: stop; don't talk it through in the moment. The person pressured decides whether, when and with whom to talk. Force, threats, fear or a repeat: Help Lines (last page).

Saying one thing, doing another

 Consistency Pact — A private weekly check on your own follow-through. Broke a shared agreement? Tell your partner.

We feel like housemates

 Daily Rhythm — A morning hello, an evening catch-up. Feels like a chore? A night off fixing:  Sun Memory.

Time for our weekly check-in

 Weekly Reset — 40 minutes on a timer; 15 is fine to start. The monthly part adds 10.

 At any point, if someone floods: take a Pause + Return, then restart warm. If threats, fear, coercion or violence appear, do not return at the set time: leave safely and use the Help Lines.

 Afraid of your partner, being threatened, or not free to say no? (This includes a partner who checks, restricts or accuses.) Stop. These tools are not for this. Get outside help: Help Lines: last page. Numbers are not on this map: keep them somewhere private.

THE FIRST THREE TO GRAB

Green Rule

Learn first

The one rule that can't be broken: the honest thing must be safe to say. Pause the topic; if flooded but safe, take a Pause + Return.

"This doesn't feel safe right now."

Pause + Return

Learn first

Time apart, with an exact time to come back. For flooding, never for fear. 20 minutes to 24 hours.

"I need a pause. I'll be ready at ____."

60-Second Reset

Learn first

A fight is starting and you're both still in the room? One sentence, then a time to keep talking.

"I want to connect, not fight. Can we talk at ____?"

When to use which

 Flooded; need to leave and come back	→ Pause + Return
 Still in the room, tone rising, both willing to stop for a minute	→ 60-Second Reset
 A hard conversation to get right	→ System Overlay
 Outside pressure or disapproval from family, friends or strangers	→ Team Agreement
 Trust breach	→ Trust Recovery
 Drifting apart or pulling away	→ Check-Up
 About to say or hear something hard	→ Green Rule
 Small sting or sharp tone	→ Micro-Repair
 Anything else	→ the Situation Map (front)

 If someone floods: take a Pause + Return, then restart warm. If threats, fear, coercion or violence appear, do not return at the set time: leave safely and use the Help Lines.
